

Iron County Register

Entered in the Post Office at Ironton, Mo., as Second Class Matter.

VOLUME XLIX. NUMBER 22.

Ironton, Missouri,
THURSDAY, NOV. 4, 1915.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Lopes have a new ad.
Probate court next week.
Apples exceedingly plentiful.
Arcadia is still dark o' nights.
Teachers' Meeting at Bellevue next Saturday.
A year of drouths and floods this surely has been.

Quite a lot of cattle still in this section, we are told.

"Twil go down in history as one of the mildest Octobers ever."

P. T. Ives of Marble Creek will move his saw mill to Arcadia.

County court transacted routine business Monday and Tuesday.

The timber thief seems to ply his trade unmolested. More's the pity.

Mr. J. F. Schroeder of the Bismarck Gazette was an Ironton visitor last Friday.

See the advertisement of Knox Goodykintz, the automobile man from Caledonia.

The mining prop seems to be the especial ambition of the local timber thieves these days.

It is intimated that in consequence of the very wet summer the Thanksgiving turkey will be scarce.

The thermometer dropped from 68 degrees Tuesday to 25 degrees Wednesday morning. Rain is badly needed.

Miss Lucille Prince, of St. Louis, a former Ironton girl, and Mr. Richard Powell, of Chicago, will be married Christmas. Valley friends tender best wishes.

G. W. Kanouse has sold the Commercial Hotel to D. W. Wilkerson of Libbourn, Mo., formerly of Fredricktown. Mr. Kanouse will devote his time to Valley Inn.

Sam Mitts, who nearly twenty years ago was in the barber business in Ironton, but for some time past in the insurance business in Fredricktown, was an Ironton visitor Friday.

Wm. King, the tie and timber man, last Thursday removed his family from Bellevue to Ironton and is now domiciled in the Baldwin property, so long occupied by Mr. Bond.

Little Miss Hazel T. of Arcadia who was in Fredricktown Sunday, tells us that there were twenty-five arrests made in Fredricktown for Halloween pranks Saturday night.

Mrs. F. Rodach, of Middlebrook, who has not been in good health for some time past, is now in the Lutheran Hospital, St. Louis, and her condition is regarded as serious. We hope to hear of an early improvement.

The REGISTER will gladly be one of twenty contributors to put up $10 each to provide for the immediate receding of Main street. The street badly needs the oil and the benefits resulting would be great. What do you say?

In the event that the Rev. Dr. Fuller Swift, erstwhile pastor of the First Baptist Church of Ironton, succeeds in breaking into the ministry of the Episcopal church, we suggest one W. H. Crumb of Chicago as a most fitting senior warden.

We received a card this week from Rev. George Steel in which he states that both he and Mrs. Steel are well, but miss their Flat River friends and their cheerful greetings. Their address is 4161 Delmar Blvd., St. Louis. —Lead Belt News.

Herman Lueddecke of Pilot Knob was in the office Monday morning and told us that he had a cousin, just 22 years of age, in the German army, who was killed in France in September. A sad commentary on our boasted civilization and Christianity.

We are very glad, indeed, to report that Mrs. S. P. Ringo, who underwent a surgical operation in the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium, St. Louis, Monday of last week, is getting along very nicely and hopes to be able to leave the hospital in a couple of weeks.

Dr. W. C. Patton, of Cape Girardeau, Mo., announces that he has opened offices in the Cahoon Building, Spanish and Broadway streets, Rooms 210-11. Specialty, Surgery. Iron county friends wish the Dr. well on his return to the active practice.

Mrs. Stevenson and Miss Lovelace of Des Arc have been visiting friends here. The latter has been in school at Nashville, Tenn., preparing for services as a Missionary to Africa. She expects to leave for there as soon as the matter can be arranged. —Fredricktown Democrat-News.

Recorder Hawkins issued the following marriage licenses the past week:

Edward Zerfel and Frances Flora Kowka of St. Louis.

Simon John Phegley and Mary Agnes Reid of St. Louis.

Joseph O. Stewart and Lena Russell of Bellevue.

An annoying blunder occurred in the make-up of the REGISTER last week. Instead of printing a section of the popular serial story, "The Battle Cry," which has been running on our inside pages for several weeks, was printed a section of another story, "The Battle Cry," that should have appeared last week will be found in this issue, and we'll try and see such mistake not occur again.

Rosenthal-Sloan Base Ball team and Ironton will play in Ironton next Saturday afternoon. Tesreau and McCabe will pitch.

A large crowd from the country for miles around witnessed the Ironton-Flat River base ball game in Ironton last Friday afternoon. The contest was one-sided, Ironton being victorious in a score of 5 to 0. The local team was helped out by the professional pitchers, Tesreau and McCabe.

Strayed—From my farm, sometime in June, one year old past heifer, color medium red, with red and white mottled face, natural muley. Marked with a crop off each ear and round hole in each ear. Will pay for information leading to her recovery.

FLEM KINN, Edgell, Mo.

Jas. S. Sutterfield informs us that the State Fish Commissioner had notified him that they would in a few days forward him a shipment of 2000 rainbow trout to be placed in the river at West Fork. A like shipment was received and placed in the river at that point a year ago.—Reynolds County Outlook.

Mr. W. H. Smollinger of Iron Mountain was a recent caller at this office. He informed us that the talk of the big things that were going to happen at the Mountain is a little premature. A deal has been made, but no money paid yet. However, Mr. Smollinger is of the opinion that the sale will be consummated soon.

Mr. R. S. Dodd of "Winwood Farm," Pilot Knob, received four fine Holstein cows by freight Monday morning. The cows needed immediate milking and he told residents in the neighborhood of the station to help themselves. We met neighbor Crow on his way to dinner with a two gallon pail full of excellent milk.

Our genial and popular station agent, Mr. Chas. E. Downey, Mrs. Downey and daughter, went to St. Louis last Wednesday. Charlie had not been feeling first-class recently and made the trip to consult a specialist. He was assured, however, that he had no serious ailment, which announcement is most pleasing to us all.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. M. Boone of Fort Smith, Arkansas, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Margaret, and Mr. Albert van Amerongen Polak, Wednesday evening, November 17, 1915, at 9 o'clock. Mr. Polak's Iron county friends wish him and his every happiness. They will reside at Dexter, Mo.

The following teachers from Iron county attended the Teachers' Association at Cape Girardeau last week:

H. W. Lueddecke, L. F. Hutchings, R. L. Marshall, Miss Ethel Vaughan, Jesse Jackson and County Superintendent Hanson. They report the Association most interesting and are loud in their praise of the hospitality of the Cape folk.

The Iron Mountain contemplates putting a new fast train on the road about December 1st. It will make the run from St. Louis to San Antonio, Texas, in 27 hours. It would be a great train for valley folks if the company can be prevailed to have it stop at Ironton. It will pass through here, south-bound, about 9 o'clock p. m., and north-bound at 8 a. m.

The valley boys were very tame in their Halloween celebration this year. There was no destruction of property and little or no displacement or disfiguring. It was tame, indeed, compared with the doings of former years. It is said that an irate woman in Arcadia fired a half dozen or more shots at the fun-makers Saturday night which sent them all homeward, pell-mell.

One of our prominent young men, Mr. Duncan Robertson, of Arcadia, has been taking treatments for malaria, at the Missouri Baptist Hospital, at St. Louis. The doctor says that the malaria germs were gotten at Illinois four years ago. Mr. Robertson was working there at that time. It is hoped by his many valley friends that he will soon recover and be strong and well again.

A line from Dr. J. H. Martin of Edgell informs us that the item we printed last week, reproduced from the Centerville Outlook, saying that he intended moving back to Pilot Knob, was an error. The Dr. writes us that some time ago he did contemplate making the move, but afterwards reconsidered the matter and will remain at Edgell through the winter and possibly longer.

Our old friend, attorney R. I. January, of Centerville, accompanied by D. C. Howell, circuit clerk, and Bro. T. D. Shriver of the Centerville Outlook, were welcome callers at the REGISTER office Saturday morning. Although along in the sixties Mr. January looks just about the same as he did the first time the writer ever saw him—probably thirty years ago. He is at present probate judge of Reynolds county.

Elvin's Correspondence in Farmington News: "The screen door factory proposition has been abandoned, so we are told. The company was compelled to give up the 20-car load contract because of their being unable to insure delivery until they had completed their arrangements in regard to financial backing. The desired backing could have been arranged here but the company wanting the doors would not give time to arrange the matter."

A new time-card became effective Sunday. There are some changes in the time of our north-bound trains. No. 10 is now due at Ironton at 3:30 a. m., No. 22, 2:15 p. m., No. 4, 3:19 p. m., No. 5, the south-bound train at midnight, no longer stops at Ironton to discharge passengers from St. Louis. The abolition of this service is very annoying to the traveling public and a united effort should be made for its immediate restoration. On the new time card train No. 8 is nearly a half hour earlier than formerly. This train is now due at Arcadia at 4:54 p. m.

James Miller of near Lesterville was here on business with Attorney Wadlow, Tuesday. Mr. Miller informed us that he would soon make an effort to have his son Robert paroled. Mr. Miller says his son is in very poor health and that he is in the hospital the greater part of the time. —Reynolds County Outlook.

There were but four jury trials in circuit court last week, and they were all misdemeanor cases. The jury was discharged Saturday morning and court adjourned until Thursday of this week when several cases will be tried by the court. The negro, Fred Robinson, charged with assaulting Agnes Faves, the little white girl, with intent to rape, pleaded guilty and was given a sentence of five years in the penitentiary. Herman A. Taylor, charged with selling mortgaged chattels, pleaded guilty and was fined $100. The docket, with the disposition of each case, will be printed next week.

A rare opportunity for music lovers—the Lecture-Recital by Ernest R. Kroeger at the Academy of Music Friday evening, November 19th. Mr. Kroeger is a native born American musician who has won an international reputation, both as composer and concert pianist, having been honored by the French Academy for his work as Musical Director of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition; and in the present year has won additional laurels at San Francisco and the University of California. No artist of similar rank has ever (before) appeared in Ironton. Do not miss this opportunity of hearing one of the foremost American pianists. Mr. Kroeger comes under the auspices of the Catholic Ladies' Altar Society.

Farmington News: "Polite Elvins' 1914 Overland roadster burned near his home at Elvins on last Friday evening. Mr. Elvins had started down town in the car and when a short distance from his home he had a tire puncture. When he attempted to fix the puncture Mr. Elvins found that he did not have either a tire pump or an air bottle along and went back to his home to get a pump. As the battery in the car was weak he left the engine running and when he came back the car was on fire. The car was almost completely burned. The insurance was $700. This is the second car Mr. Elvins has lost by fire. His big Cadillac touring car burned about two years ago."

West Plains Gazette: "The visit of Dr. W. G. Patton to West Plains last week recalls the fact that this rising young physician was born in this city. His grandfather was M. Patton, a pioneer merchant of West Plains, who was well known by the early settlers of the country. Dr. Patton is assistant superintendent of the State Hospital for the Insane at Farmington, and he's making good. At the time he was appointed to this responsible position Dr. Patton was practicing medicine at Thayer. His many warm friends made a strong plea to Governor Major and this way secured the coveted place for Dr. Patton. He is one of the rising physicians of the state and those who have watched him succeed through his own efforts predict more honors for him in the future."

The management of the picture show announce that commencing Tuesday, November 2d, and every following Tuesday, such features as the following will be shown:

Not Goodwin in "The Master Hand."

Vivian Martin in "The Wishing Ring."

Marina Hedman in "The Cub."

Clara Kimball Young in "Hearts in Exile."

Tom Wise in "Gentleman from Mississippi."

Robert Warwick in "The Dollar Mark."

Clara Kimball Young in "Lola."

Alice Brady in "As Ye Sow," "The Man of the Hour," "The Deep Purple," "Mother," "The Pit," "The Fifth Commandment," "Old Dutch Alias Jimmy Valentine," and many others.

The following is reproduced from the St. Louis Globe-Democrat of October 27th:

"CARTHAGE, Mo., October 26.—Rev. Fuller Swift, for twenty years a Baptist minister of Missouri, to-day announced that faith and took the first steps to enter the Episcopal ministry, when he was confirmed at a special service by Rt. Rev. S. C. Partridge of Kansas City, bishop of the diocese of Western Missouri. Rev. Swift's wife also was confirmed. Rev. Swift will be admitted as a postulant for holy orders and will be ordained to a deaconate at an early date. For the last few years Rev. Mr. Swift had not served any one Baptist Church regularly, having been engaged in the insurance business. He is widely known among the Baptists of Missouri, Illinois and Indiana, having served as pastor of churches in some of the biggest cities in those states."

Can such things be and not o'ercome us as a summer dream!

Mr. H. B. Krenning, one of our Valley residents, who makes a fast run from St. Louis to the valley in an automobile nearly every week, broke the record for fast automobile driving from St. Louis to Indianapolis, Indiana, last Thursday. The following is from Sunday's St. Louis Post-Dispatch: "The record for fast automobile driving from St. Louis to Indianapolis was broken Thursday by George P. Dorris, vice president of the Dorris Motor Car Co., of St. Louis, using a Dorris six-cylinder touring car. The party consisting of Mr. Dorris, H. B. Krenning, president of the Dorris Co.; George L. Jack and V. C. Klopfer, left the Dorris factory at 7:25 a. m. Thursday and the car arrived at Indianapolis eight hours and 20 minutes later, breaking all previous records, it is stated. The distance is 254 miles. The fastest previous time for this drive is said to be about 10½ hours. The entire trip was made without a single mechanical adjustment or tire trouble of any kind."

A delegation of county officials and other citizens of Reynolds county arrived in Ironton Thursday evening as witnesses in mandamus proceedings before Judge Dearing which Collector Farris of Reynolds county had instituted against Sheriff Parks. Circuit Clerk Howell had issued nineteen executions in delinquent tax suits and the Collector, as the law says he can, directed the Sheriff to place the advertisements of the notices of sale in the Ellington Press. This the Sheriff refused to do, and divided the notices between the Centerville Outlook and the Ellington Press. Then the Collector instituted mandamus proceedings. After consulting with attorneys here the suit was withdrawn. The mandamus proceedings, it is said, should have been instituted by the printer in the Springfield Court of Appeals. In this instance the contending parties did not care to go to the expense necessary to appearance in the Court of Appeals.

Designs and Estimates furnished on all Memorials, Monuments or Markers. All Cemetery work promptly and skillfully executed. Prices and workmanship have no equal. All work polished and finished from selected material. An inspection of stock invited.

School Notes.

The Sophomore Class of the High School entertained the High School with the following numbers last Friday:

Vocal Solo, Edith Hotsen; Reading, Irene Peck; Vocal Solo, Cleo Allen; Recitation, Dewey Pollock; Instrumental Solo, Addie Buckey; Paper, "The Sophomore Tattler," edited by Robert Edgar. "The Tattler" was made up of school news and real live jokes which added greatly to the enjoyment of the program.

The Freshmen will give a program next Friday, November 6th.

A new student, Miss Ollie Miner, enrolled in the High School Monday, November 1st.

The following Halloween Program was given by the fifth and sixth grades on Monday, November 1st:

Song, fifth and sixth grades; Benjamin Franklin Clay, fifth and sixth grades; Dialogue, John Coad and Blanchard Tual; Recitation, Helen Reese; Reading, Mildred Marshall; Original Story, Arline Tual; Instrumental Solo, Dorothy Reese; Recitation, Zella Russell; Story, Myrtle Simenton; Song, Six Girls; Recitation, Blue Eyes Gross; An Autumn Frolic, Thirteen Children; Recitation, Leona Baldwin; Original Story, Leona Baldwin; Recitation, Marion Huff; Recitation, Anna Marie Kindella; Song, fifth and sixth grades.

The Ironton High School Basketball team will play the Piedmont team at Piedmont next Saturday.

On Wednesday of last week Mrs. Graham, County Superintendent of Schools of Mississippi County, talked to the students of the High School. Her talk was very interesting and instructive. Among other things she said that nothing was too good for the boys and girls of Missouri and especially the boys and girls of Ironton. Mrs. Graham mentioned the need of more room if we wish to have our High School approved by the State Superintendent of Schools.

Farewell to Father Adrian.

Our little village of Arcadia was the scene this afternoon of one of the most pleasant gatherings witnessed here in a long time. It was the assembling of the friends of Father John F. Adrian to bid him good bye on his leaving the Arcadia Valley, after ten years' hard work among us. It would be difficult to describe the scene in writing as it appeared to those who saw it, but we will tell it as best we can.

As it was known that Father Adrian would leave at 5 o'clock, Father Werner and the members of the parish arranged a reception at 3:30 o'clock p. m. in the College Chapel; after the service there, the congregation adjourned to Exhibition Hall in the College building, and the large number present filled the spacious auditorium to overflowing.

The Ursuline Sisters had arranged a musical programme, and in addition there was music by the Ironton band. Then, after a few words by Father Werner and a member of the parish, we sprang our main surprise on Father Adrian by presenting him a gift of $315.00 in gold—a voluntary offering from the friends of Father in the parishes of Arcadia-Ironton, Pilot Knob, Graniteville and Bismarck, many of the contributors not being parish members. Father Adrian was visibly affected and acknowledged his thanks in his usual happy manner.

After more music we were all invited to go to the station to see Father Adrian board his train; the band was there and rendered some pleasing and appropriate selections. The crowd must have numbered between 250 and 300 people, and such a feeling of goodwill, mixed with regret, as was manifested by the assembly, was very touching, and more than one elderly man was seen to brush away the unbidden tear.

There is no one in the valley who does not know Father Adrian, and so many of us know the ten years of hard work he has put in among us, and when we say "hard work," we mean "hard work," for Father Adrian does not know how to work any other way.

He has had a very active part in the building that has been done at the College: witness the $30,000 wing, the $40,000 chapel and other structures.

He has helped with our bank, the granite quarry, the railroad demonstration farm, and the good roads and our picnic; and, in fact, everything offered for the upbuilding of the valley. And in the departure of Father Adrian the community at large has suffered a great loss. He was a willing worker who labored without price. And all this work has been done in addition to his pastoral work, which need not be mentioned, as it is too well known to the parishes and the members thereof.

We have not the gifted pen at our command to eulogize Father Adrian, but there is no need for it. We only write these lines for the information of those who were not present this afternoon.

So, now we will close by offering our thanks to all who were so kind as to add to the gathering by their presence, and to the Band of Ironton who did so much to add pleasure to the occasion, and to all individual workers who did so much to make the affair a complete success.

A MEMBER OF THE PARISH.

GOOD NEWS.

Many Ironton Readers Have Heard it and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the many bad backs sufferers in Ironton are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Mrs. Nellie Rust, Ironton, says: "One of my family was in pretty bad shape and suffered almost constantly from backache, sometimes being scarcely able to get about. The kidney secretions were generally too frequent in passage, particularly at night, and often painful. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the Arcadia Valley Drug Co., stopped all that and we have never been without them in the house since."

Price, 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Rust recommends. Foster-McBurn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Our Ironton High School.

What a grand thing our Ironton High School is, but how much grander and more progressive it could be if we only had room.

Oh, how small our rooms are and how unpleasant it is for the pupils and teachers to have to sit in a school-room all crowded up with desks. There is hardly room enough to move around.

But one of the saddest things is the thoughts of not enough room to teach manual training and domestic science—that is to say the practical things that will fit the boys and girls for the business life.

What the pupils are praying for and what they believe the dear Arcadia Valley people will do is to get together, decide on a good piece of ground and build us a High School that is large enough to teach practical things in. Our earnest and hopeful prayer is "Room, more room."

Ironton High School pupils there certainly are many.

But room for more, there is hardly any.

Our school is so crowded that we believe it is right sultry we could not breathe.

Oh, our aisles and desks are so very close.

That of a comfortable feeling we can not boast.

Now come on, dear Arcadia Valley people, help us out.

Get right in line, be a true scout.

And your memory always will pleasantly be by people who now are and are to be.

AN IRONTON HIGH SCHOOL GIRL.

Baptist Church.

Next Sunday morning Rally Day Exercises will be held under the auspices of the Sunday School. Services will begin at 9:45 and close at 11:45.

This is going to be an unique meeting, something out of the usual order, and one well worth attending.

The young people will hold a meeting at half past six, and evangelistic services will be conducted by the pastor the hour following. There will be good music.

Eighty-two in Sunday School last Sunday; 47 of that number remained for the preaching service.

Stewart—Russell.

One of the most interesting events of the season was the marriage, Wednesday evening, October 27, 1915, of Miss Lena Russell and Mr. Joseph C. Stewart at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Russell, Bellevue, Mo. Promptly at 7:30 Miss Lizzie played the familiar strains of the wedding march as the couple, preceded by the father and mother of the bride made their way from the living room into the spacious parlor where they were met by Rev. C. W. Anderson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Potosi, Mo., who made them one.

The ceremony was beautiful in words and full of pathos. There were many a silent amen to the prayers for a long and happy life of the wedded couple.

The bride was very becomingly attired in a simple but dainty frock of white. The groom wore a suit of black. After hearty congratulations and good wishes, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Russell came forward with baby Esther Martha and Rev. Anderson with a few tender beautiful words baptized the little one, who is a niece of the bride.

After these two impressive ceremonies all were invited to the dining room where a delicious two course luncheon was served. The tables were beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns.

Relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart were and elsewhere remembered them with many elegant presents as a token of esteem. The many friends of these popular young people welcome them to their new home in Bellevue where Mr. Stewart is one of our enterprising blacksmiths.
